43/1. According to Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنه, the Prophet ﷺ narrated from his Lord. He said, "Allah ﷻ decreed the good deeds and the bad deeds and explained them. So whoever intends to do a good deed but does not do it, Allah ﷻ shall write for him a single complete good deed. If he intends to do a good deed and then does it, Allah ﷻ shall write for him ten good deeds, up to seven hundred good deeds, or even multiplied beyond that. And whoever wants to do a bad deed but does not do it, Allah ﷻ shall write for him a single good deed. If he intends to do a bad deed and then does it, Allah ﷻ shall write for him only one bad deed."

47/5. According to Abū Hurayra رضي الله عنه, Muhammad, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said,

“Allah ﷻ says, ‘When My servant speaks to himself about performing a good deed, I write a single good deed for him so long as he performs it, after which I write for him ten times its like in good deeds. And when he speaks to himself about performing a bad deed, I forgive it for him so long as he does not do it. If he performs the bad deed, I write it only as a single bad deed.’ The angels say, ‘O Lord, this slave of Yours desires to commit a bad deed.’ Allah says—and He is most aware of His servant—‘Keep a watch on him; if he does it then only write it down as a single bad deed, and if he abandons it, write it as a good deed for him, for he abstains from it only out of My fear.’ So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘When one of you perfects his Islam, each deed he performs is rewarded ten to seven hundred times over, and every sin he commits is only written as one bad deed—and this is until he meets Allah.’”

48/6. According to Abū Dharr رضي الله عنه, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said,

"Allah ﻋَزَّ وَجَلَّ says, 'Whoever comes with a good deed will receive ten times its like, and I will increase him with more. And whoever comes with a sin, then his recompense is for that one sin only, or I forgive him. Whoever draws near to Me by a hand span, I draw near to him by an arm's length; whoever draws near to Me by an arm's length, I draw near to him by a bow's length; whoever comes to Me walking, I come to him running; and whoever meets Me with sins that fill the earth, but meets Me without having associated any partners with Me, I will meet him with a similar amount of forgiveness.'"
